OUTLINES.

At Wadesboro, N. C., yesterday Judge Neal bound over to Union County Superior Court sixteen men charged with lynching J. V. Johnson, white, on Monday last; two others turned States' evidence, and another witness was Miss Alice Boggan, daughter of the sheriff; bond was fixed at $5,000 ——President Roosevelt on Monday will send to Congress the report exposing the shocking condition of the meat packing establishments of Chicago; he desired to make the report public because the packers oppose government inspection and the House Agricultural Committee is retarding remedial legislation——In the investigation before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington yesterday, it was shown that three railroads combined to make the coal rate to Washington $3.20 to one shipper and $1.10 to another——At Madrid yesterday a well dressed Englishman was arrested in connection with the bomb horror of Thursday, but no definite clue resulted; unattended, the King and Queen yesterday took an automobile ride to re-assure the people—— Bradstreet's reports business and manufacturing conditions good and railroad earnings for May the largest on record——Secretary Hester makes the world's visible supply of cotton 3,748,821 bales against 3,874,852 last year—Representative Robert Adams, of Pennsylcania, committed suicide in his apartments at Washington yesterday morning, after writing a letter to Speaker Cannon, saying that his debts were greater than his resources; he had been gambling in stock for years ——In New York yesterday Josephine Terranova was acquitted of the murder of her aunt, but was held until the District Attorney can decide whether to prosecute her for the murder of her uncle, both having been killed by the girl at the same time and under the same circumstances —— New York markets: Money on call strong 3 1-2 to 5 per cent.; ruling rate 4; closing bid and offered at 5; spot cotton 20 points lower, closing quiet at 11.25; flour about steady, but dull; wheat barely steady, No. 2 red 84 nominal; corn firm, No. 2, 58 1-2 nominal elevator; oats steady, mixed 39 1-2; turpentine firm; rosin firm, strained common to good, 4.00.

Those investigations seem to vindicate Ida Tarbell from the change of being a muckraker.

Should Congress decide to have the Panama built on the lock or the sea-level plans the people prefer to have it built on the square.

The Lincoln Republican party in Pennsylvania seems to be first cousin to the Democratic party. The platform, except as to the tariff, reads like William J. Bryan sat up with the committee on platforms.

Mr. J. P. Wiggins has become editor and manager of the Whiteville News-Reporter. He promises Columbus county a clean and representative paper and in his efforts The Star wishes him complete success.

The marriage of King Alfonso and Princess Victoria in Madrid on Thursday had a tragic and horrible sequel. Let us hope we may never have in this country fiends capable of hurling bombs without regard to how many or whom they slaughter.

A Republican contemporary says "President Roosevelt will need a strong Republican majority in Congress during the last two years of his administration if he is to carry out those principles and reforms which he has already inaugurated for the betterment of conditions in the country." Judging from his experience with his very strong Republican majority in this Congress, it would seem that a strong Democratic majority is what Roosevelt needs in his business.

Concerning the lynching of J. V Johnson at Wadesboro last Monday, Governor Glenn, who has been there to aid in the investigation, said: "In my cool, deliberate judgment, when they conspired together to go to the jail and take a helpless prisoner out of his cell, drag him half a mile, he begging all the time for mercy, and hang him to a tree and shoot his body full of holes, they committed a murder in the sight of both God and man more heinous than that of their victim, who slew a man in anger." When public sentiment is educated up to the fact that it is none the less murder for people to take the law in their own hands, there may be less lynching. Mob murder is bad as murder of any kind.

MR. G. A. CROFT DEAD

Well Known Travelling Man and Esteemed Citizen Passed Away Here Yesterday.

END CAME AT 11:45 A. M.

His Demise Came as a Shock to Family and Friends—Life Full of Good Deeds and Kindness — Fine Character.

Mr. George A. Croft, a prominent travelling man and one of New Hanover's most useful citizens, passed away yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock, in this city, after a brief immediate illness with a complication of diseases. This anouncement will bring sincere sorrow to the hearts of a very great many friends, not only in Wilmington, but all over the Southern States where Mr. Croft was well and most favorably known.

Mr. Croft had been in declining health for a year or more but his friends were totally unprepared for the shock that came with the announcement that he had passed away. Possessing an indomitable energy and naturally buoyant in spirit, he never gave up until the last moment and reached Wilmington only Tuesday afternoon of this week from a trip through Eastern North Carolina, combining on the trip business for his house and a visit to Panacea Springs with the hope that a brief respite there would do him good. He had previously spent several weeks at Hot Springs, Ark., the past Spring, but nothing seemed to relieve him more than temporarily. Arriving here on Tuesday, he was too weak to return to his home on Wrightsville Sound and went to the home of Mrs. J. S. Mitchell, a friend of the family at No. 113 North Fourth. The family physician was summoned and he was at once joined by the devoted wife, who, with friends, did everything possible for his comfort and well being. But he had passed the stage when human endeavor avails and at the hour named, he passed peacefully away as if falling into a restful sleep.

Mr. Croft came to Wilmington eight years ago and purchasing the handsome VanAmringe place, on the Sound, made this his home since. For a number of years he had travelled the South for the Graf Mosbach Co., large harness and leather manufacturers of Cincinnati, Ohio. He was accounted one of the best salesmen in the South and made friends everywhere he went. Besides this, Mr. Croft had large private interests all over the South and at the time of his death was president of the Bank of Maysville, S. C., besides being connected with numerous other enterprises. He was a strong believer in his country and took a lively interest in everything tending to its uplift. His acquaintance with the really big men of the South was wide and he had done not a little toward attracting capital and industry to Wilmington and this section. Being a man of means, he was charitable to a fault and a distinguishing trait in his character was his love for little children. Through his influence more than one less fortunate boy has been educated and established in the world. It had been his custom for years, without ostentation, during Christmas times, to contribute largely to make little hearts glad with gifts and presents at this happy season of the year. He was truly a man whose life was full of good deeds and kindness.

Mr. Croft was 45 years of age at the time of his death. He was born at McMillan, Tenn., a suburb of Knoxville, but the greater part of his life had been spent on the road. He married Mrs. Margaret George, nee Walker, and she and her little daughter, Margaret, survive; also three sisters, Mrs. Sallie Cardwell and Mrs. T. H. Madgett, of Knoxville, and Mrs. W. H. Howell, of of Conway, S. C. Mrs. Howell was at Hendersonville, N. C., when a telegram reached her yesterday, informing her of the sad death. Members of the family will arrive in time to attend the funeral which will be conducted Sunday afternoon. All of the bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in this hour of their sorrow.

Mr. Croft was a Shriner, the highest order of Masonry, carrying his membership in Cincinnati and the fraternity there has been notified of the death. From all over the country yesterday came telegrams of sympathy while a large number of friends called at the residence of Mrs. Mitchell to offer condolence to the bereaved ones.

BALL SEASON BEGINS TO-DAY

First of City League Games at Hilton Park This Afternoon—Great Interest Among Local Cranks.

Teams of the City Baseball League are in fine fettle for the opening games of the season this afternoon at Hilton Park, and judging from the interest shown, there will be a large crowd present to see the pennant chase begin. The men have had good practice both individually and in team work and each of them will go in to win. The grounds are in fine order and barring the prospect of rain, there is every indication that the league season will have an auspicious beginning.

The first game this afternoon will be called at 3 o'clock and will be between the Giants and Y. M. C. A. The second will be called at 5 o'clock and will be between the Rattlers and Monarchs. Mr. J. E. Smith and Mr. Weathersby have been engaged to umpire the games and both will be found experienced men with the indicator.

The Consolidated Company will operate cars to the bridge and arrangements have been made with Orrell & Alexander to transfer passengers from there to the grounds in wagonettes.

The line-up of the teams has previously been given. Messrs Ferdinand Duls and Lacy King will form the battery for the Y. M. C. A.; Oscar Brinkley and D. Seifert for the Giants; Louis Poisson and A. McKoy, for the Monarchs, and A. Alderman and George Moore, for the Rattlers.

The large pennant offered by Spalding & Co., will be flying to the breezes for the first time this afternoon and the bleachers at Hilton will present a familiar scene as the ball is tossed over the home plate for the first time. There will be no charge for admission to the games, but every crank will be expected to make a free-will offering.

FIGHT WITH CONVICTS.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon has the following:

"Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock, a posse, commanded by officer W. A. Beard, Jr., and consisting besides of Messrs. Faircloth a convict guard Stephen Autry and son, came up with the four convicts who were noted in the Observer yesterday as escaping from Road Superintendent Cole, after overpowering him, and taking his revolver.

"The four convicts were hidden in Beaver Dam Swamp, but betrayed their whereabouts by a fire which they had kindled. When confronted and surrounded, as far as the swamp would permit, they answered a command to surrender by rising up and opening fire on the posse, all being armed. A desperate fight took place, in the course of which Wm. Simpson, one of the convicts, was wounded in the hip and arm, and brought to the ground, and Mr. Autry on the other side was shot in the hand. The other three convicts, Melvin, McKay and McAllister, after exhausting their ammunition, retreated into the depths of the swamp, through which it was impossible to follow them.

"Where did the convicts procure their weapons, besides the one taken from the road superintendent, Mr. Cole? That question is puzzling the minds of the several officers. Mr. Beard states that, by the time the fight was over, there were eight or ten negroes collected on the side of the swamp."

BOYS' BRIGADE EXCURSION.

Fine Success of Outing by Popular Military Command.

The Boys' Brigade excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday was a big success. Large crowds went down on each trip of the steamer Wilmington, and at the beach all the young people found some form of amusement to please them. One of the popular diversions was roller skating on the splendid new rink just opened there by Messrs. Bristow and Johnson. The floor was found to be an excellent one and it was crowded nearly all the afternoon, and all during the night until the last trip of the steamer. There were also music, dancing and other features of entertainment.

The trap shoot between the third team from the Wilmington Gun Club and the Southport team was won by the latter by four birds. The contest was interesting not only for those who participated, but for the spectators of which there was a goodly number.

THE SUPERIOR COURT

Case of Solomon and Others Against Sewerage Company Still In Hearing

WILL BE CONCLUDED TO-DAY

Attorneys Now Arguing Questions of Law to Judge Webb—Interesting Damage Suits For Trial Next Week—Other Notes.

The Superior Court was engaged all day yesterday with a continuance of the hearing in the case of B. Solomon and a number of other subscribers to the service against the Wilmington Sewerage Company, which is being hard fought by both sides as involving the very life of the defendant corporation. The contentions of both sides in the suit were outlined in yesterday's paper and those who have followed the litigation since its inception with the injunction proceedings before Judge Peebles in March, 1903, are quite familiar with the case. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan are appearing for the sewerage company and Messrs. Rountree & Carr and Bellamy & Bellamy, for the plaintiff subscribers.

A number of witnesses, consisting largely of the plaintiffs, were examined yesterday morning with Mr. Wm. E. Worth president of the sewerage company. A large bulk of documentary testimony was also introduced and in the afternoon argument by counsel was begun. This, however, was not to the jury but to Judge Webb, who will first determine some questions of law before submitting the issues to be answered by the jury. The case will be concluded this morning upon the convening of court at 9:30 A. M.

Court met at 10 A. M., yesterday and the sheriff returned as jurors summoned for the day: F. T. Mills, W. L. Harlow, G. S. Boylan and James M. Bordeaux. Excused by the court: Frank T. Mills.

Aside from the case referred to above, the only other matter disposed of yesterday was the case of C. M. Whitlock against Wm. Bragaw, which was referred, by consent, to Eugene S. Martin.

There are a number of cases of minor importance that may be taken up to-day upon conclusion of the hearing of the suit now in hand. Next week comes the trial of the interesting damage suits of Melvin Horne and Frank Meier, Admr. vs. the Consolidated Company.

HER BROTHER DEAD.

Mrs. James Carmichael Receives Sad News From Virginia.

Rev. Dr. James Carmichael, D. D., and Mrs. Carmichael left Thursday night in response to a telegram announcing the sudden death of Mrs. Carmichael's youngest brother, Mr. Howson H. Wallace, which occurred at his home in Fredericksburg, Va., the same morning as the result of heart disease. Mr. Wallace was 60 years of age and had been in declining health for some time. He was a Confederate soldier and was prominent in the business and social life of his town.

He was postmaster of his city during Cleveland's last administration, after which he became president of the National Bank of Fredericksburg, which position he held until the time of his death. He formerly served in the City Council, had been for some years an influential member of the State Democratic Committee and was well known over the State.

He was a member of one of the oldest families and wielded a wide influence. He is survived by his widow, one son, Mr. H. Lewis Wallace; two daughters, Mrs. Robert S. Knox and Miss Ellen D. Wallace, and two brothers, Capt. C. Wistar Wallace and Judge A. W. Wallace; also one sister, Mrs. James Carmichael, of Wilmington.

MISS ANNIE HAMME'S CLASS.

Successful Musical Recital Given Last Week at Oxford.

A correspondent at Oxford, N. C., writes very complimentarily of the closing recital of the pupils of Miss Annie Hamme's classes in music in that little city on the evening of May 26th. The programme of classical music is given and the correspondent adds these words of commendation which will be heartily seconded by many friends in this city. "Miss Hamme's musical talent and knowledge of imparting it is too well known to require any enconiums from my pen. She stands first in her chosen profession and we are glad to know she will remain with us. The medals awarded were presented most gracefully and with appropriate address by Mr. W. H. Harrison."

ENTERTAINMENT A SUCCESS

Sunbeam Club of Miss Alderman's Select School Gave Delightful Play in Academy of Music.

The entertainment last night by the Sunbeam Club of Miss Alderman's Select School for the benefit of the Boys' Brigade was fully up to the high standard of past years and was enjoyed by a very large audience. Judging by the applause, there was not a dull moment in the production. The form of the entertainment was the presentation of a roaring farce "The Heavenly Twins" and "The Trial of Robbie Burton" with several specialty numbers, all of a high order.

In the farce Will Cronenberg and Gus Christoffersen essayed the leading role of students at Yale while Miss Mary Eve Carpenter essayed the role of principal of "Miss Brown's Select School for Young Ladies" around which the plot revolved. Miss Gesine Mohr was seen to advantage as "Miss Brown's Sister" and Miss Annie Tiencken as the mother of one of the Yale students and a friend of "Miss Brown's." Misses Irene Frederick and Rowena Swann made exceptionally clever chums in the school, while Misses Fannie Holden, Lorena DeVane, Laura Carpenter and Miss Augusta Gieschen formed the student body. Harry Morris, as the janitor, and Owen Fillyaw, as a detective figuring in the plot, were splendid.

In the "Trial of Robbie Burton," Henry Tiencken appeared as the defendant; DeVane Grimsley as counsel for the defence and Douglas Truelove, attorney for the prosecution. Other members of the cast were LeRoy Polvogt, as "Puck;" Lucile McKracken, as "Blossom;" George Frederick, as "Oberon;" Bertha Zoeller, as "Titania;" Richard Warren, as "Herald;" Will Bellois, as crier; Herndon Jewell, as captain; Geo. Bowden, as foreman of the jury. Other characters were: Fairies, Louise Gieschen, Alma Benton, Katherine Penny, Marion Summerell, Elizabeth Davis, Irene Price, Gladys Price, Butterflies, Johnnie Boesch, George Sloman, Vaverly Roseberry, George Thienken, Joseph Howe, Willie Powell, Carl Ruhter. A large number of supernumeraries were seen as jurors, soldiers and Indians.

The young people acquitted themselves with great credit and displayed excellent training and exceptional talent. Miss Alderman's entertainments are always a great success financially and artistically. Last night was no exception and the large audience was eminently well pleased.

The specialties incuded a violin solo by Harry McGowan. The accompanists were the Misses Galloway, who added no little to the success of the entertainment.

NEW LUTHERAN HYMNAL.

Collection For Universal Adoption Received by Local Congregations.

Lutherans in this city will worship to-morrow with the aid of a new collection of hymns. For years a joint committee representing the General Council, the General Synod and the United Synod in the South, has been at work on a common book of worship for all Lutherans in the United States and Canada. The first result of the committee's labors was the "Common Service" of 1888, which has unified Lutheran worship in this country on the basis of the purest Lutheran liturgies of the 16th century. Then followed an exact translation of the text of Luther's Small Catechism in 1903, and now the committee has published a fixed collection of 547 hymns, culled from the thousands of evangelical hymns of the past and present, and selected according to well defined and established principles of hymnology.

Gratifying to Lutherans especially is the apeparance of a large number of the chorals of the Reformation days, the classic hymns of Protestantism, in English form. Many of these purely objective hymns were so popular that with them the gospel fairly sung its way into the hearts of men. Added to these hymns, the collection contains the pick of Grecian, Latin Scandinavian, English and American hymns. The hymnal is bound in attractive form in one volume which also contains the Common Service, the psalms and confessions. St. Paul's will use it for the first time at to-morrow morning's English service.

Live Stock for the City.

Chairmen Karr, of the Police; O'Brien, of the Streets and Wharves, and W. E. Yopp, of the Sanitary Committee, met last night at the City Hall and commissioned Mr. Nathan Schloss to go to Atlanta and make the purchase of additional live stock for the city as provided for in the new budget. There are five horses for the mounted police, two draft horses for the sanitary department and four mules for the department of Streets and Wharves. Chairman Yopp decided on horses in preference to mules for the sanitary department and thinks the change will be more satisfactory. It is possible that a member of one of the committees will accompany Mr. Schloss on the purchasing trip.

Hon. G. B. Patterson Here.

Hon. G. B. Patterson, Congressman from this district, arrived yesterday from his home at Laxton and is a guest at The Orton. Mr. Patterson feels much encouraged at the outlook for his re-nomination and expresses high appreciation of the loyalty of his supporters all over the district. His friends say he will go in the convention with the solid delegation of his home county of Robeson, which has a strength of 49 votes, the largest in the district. He expects a representation in the delegation from this county and a good strength in Brunswick.

Flow of Artesian Water.

The Lowry Well Co., has just completed for Mr. Thos. F. Bagley a fine, flowing artesian well at his pretty country place on Greenville Sound. The flow is 10 feet above low tide and the flow is 12 gallons per minute. The water appears fine for drinking purposes and is strongly sulphur. Mr. Bagley is sending a sample of the water to the State Chemist for analysis.

From the records of the North Carolina Car Service Association, it is gleaned that the car-load shipments through Wilmington for the month of April were 2,802 against 1,683 for Charlotte the next highest in the State. CHARLOTTE EVENING CHRONICLE

Our highly esteemed contemporary, the Charlotte Chronicle, has just passed the third year of its existence. If there is any three year old that can beat it we have never seen it, and the Star can heartily and with deep sincerity join the chorus of wishes that it may add unlimited years to its highly creditable career. The Chronicle is the handsomest paper in North Carolina and is a paragon of excellence in every respect. It is a superior newspaper, its tone is high, and its tem per even at all times. The editorial page is a model and we commend it for its versatility, ability and unvarying interest. Editor Wade H. Harris has our congratulations and Charlotte our felicitations on the Chronicle subject.

JUDGE GOFF ASSAILED.

There are evidences that the fight between the Republican factions in North Carolina is as bitter as ever. The Caucasian, published at Raleigh, and formerly if not now the property of Ex-Senator Marion Butler, is now a strenuous Republican paper and fighting with the Rollins-Butler faction. The Caucasian does not seem to be satisfied because Judge Goff declined to give the jury a chance to convict Congressman Spencer Blackburn in his trial in the Federal court at Greensboro, and in its last issue thus assails Judge Goff for ordering the Blackburn case to be dismissed without giving it to the jury to decide:

"North Carolinians have great respect for their juries—the twelve honest men who sit in the jury box to do justice to their peers. Yet Judge Goff insulted a North Carolina jury by refusing to trust them. He did not even claim that there was 'no evidence' to go to the jury (which he could not do) but said if the jury convicted the accused that he would set the verdict aside. So he took the case from the jury. Then why did he not let the jury have a chance to do its duty? The Judge had it in his power to set aside the verdict, but he knew that then an apepal could be taken from his action. And this must be the reason of the remarkable action of the Judge. No State judge would dare to so ignore the State law and to so insult a North Carolina jury."

The inference to be drawn from the above is that the Rollins-Butler faction still regards Congressman Blackburn as guilty of the charges against him, despite Judge Goff's conclusion that the evidence was so trivial that it was not worth while letting it go to the jury.

The Caucasian's allusion to the Blackburn case shows that the fight against Blackburn has not ceased, and evidently Blackburn is still in a fighting mood. This from yesterday's Charlotte Observer is more evidence that the row is still on:

"A most interesting report struck Charlotte yesterday. It is to the effect that Mr. A. H. Price, of Salisbury, has given up his post of assistant district attorney to Mr. A. E. Holton, of Winston-Salem, and his place has been offered to ex-Judge A. L. Coble, of Statesville. Although this story is still in the shape of a rumor it bears the earmarks of truth. The Hon. E. Spencer Blackburn loves not Mr. Price and he may have gunned for his scalp. Mr. Price is, at present, on his bridal tour. The Republican war goes on and nothing is considered unusual these days. If Dr. Warren Vines Hall were to be made secretary to the vice president of the United States no one should wonder."

REVELATIONS IN MEAT PACKING.

Not only in Washington but throughout this country and in Europe has interest in the Chicago packing house situation been roused to a white heat by sensational statements that have been made public concerning the alleged contents of a report made to the President by certain investigators whom he sent to Chicago to inquire into the conditions in the meat packing industry at that place.

As a result it is now announced that no action on the Agricultural Appropriation bill, containing the Beveridge amendment for meat inspection, will be taken either by the Conference Committee or by the House Committee on Agriculture until representatives of the packing industry have had opportunity to satisfy themselves concerning the operation of the provision. Public curiosity, which has reached a high pitch with reference to the precise contents of the report, will probably not be satisfied through its official publication unless the opposition of the packing interests to the inspection system becomes so strong that it is necessary to forcus public opinion upon Congress in order to assure the retention of the Beveridge amendment in the Agricultural Appropriation bill.

It will be remembered that Mr. Beveridge's amendment provided for government inspection of cattle before they are slaughtered and for inspection of meats before they are marketed. Thursday's Chicago dispatches, stated, however, that the packing house companies will welcome inspection and will not oppose any measure before Congress looking to that end. Concerning the alarm over the disclosures and the result, the New York Journal of Commerce says:

"The reports about packing house conditions in Chicago are calculated to produce an excited state of mind which is not favorable to deliberate or wise ligislation. Congress should not be too precipitate in action provoked by such disclosures. It is not obliged to adjourn at any particular date and can take whatever time may be necessary in providing for an inspection of packing house conditions and operations, to make sure that its legislation is not only fitted to the requirements of the case but is within its constitutional power for the regulation of interstate commerce and will therefore be upheld as valid. The immediate effect of the exposures will be to put the packers on their guard and induce them to avoid at least for the time those practices the report of which has aroused such indignation and is so damaging to their business, and there is no such occasion for haste as to justify headlong action."

"Much that has been told is no doubt based upon fact, and it is probably true that diseased cattle are slaughtered, that bad material is doctored and sold for food, that there has been much that is offensive and unwholesome in the holes and corners of the by-products of this business. It is one of the drawbacks of the enormous scale upon which the business is done that a close supervision is impossible on the part of its chief managers, and that much is left to the discretion of underlings who are expected to produce the most profitable results. In the employment of thousands of men, many of a coarse and vulgar type, there is likely to be much negligence and recklessness in work that should be done with care and cleanliness. Doubtless gross abuses may have grown up in the enormous business of slaughtering herds of cattle, coverting them into food products, with a utilization of everything salable, and marketing the results; and collecting together instances of these and arraying them in a tale of horrors has a revolting effect. But this is not the kind of evidence upon which it is safe to proceed in devising legislation, without further examination and a more deliberate ascertainment of facts."

President Roosevelt is withholding some of the matter reported to him, but he is stirred up over the situation. There is proper cause for alarm but conditions may not be as bad as reported Everybody who eat meats, however, can subscribed to the declaration that whatever proportion of foulness, unwholesomeness and fraud there may be in this purveying of food supplies, it should be vigorously dealt with and wholly prevented. There should be thorough inspection and an effective system of regulation, but the Federal authority will no doubt observe the limitation of its jurisdiction. The primary responsibility for the conditions and methods which prevail at Chicago, so far as they may be as represented, rests upon that city and the State of Illinois, and public opinion will be largely directed upon them.

HOME OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY

Wonderful Change in Condition of Man Who Was Victim of Whiskey But Was Cured.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.

I entered the Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., on the 2d day of January, 1904, and left there January 29th, 1904, sound and well and cured of the disease which had caused me so much trouble and ruin. I have continued entirely sober and without the desire for strong drink in the least up to this time. I am satisfied with my present condition and my friends are all gratified at my recovery. But a short while longer and I would have been in my grave had I not taken the treatment at your Institute. The physician, manager and attendants I shall ever hold in loving remembrance, and I shall never forget the comfortable board and cheerful home at the Institute. I always praise the Keeley Treatment and recommend it to all who drink in my county, which shall be my home until I die. I tell them it is a home of peace, love and prosperity.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Two white men lynched in the South in three days shows that the lynchers do not draw the color line.—Baltimore Sun.

—Standard Oil certainly killed competition, but for a dead man the latter is telling a lot of tales.—Memphis News-Scimitar.

—It appears that former Senator Marion Butler runs a press bureau in the interest of his faction of the Republican party, having himself interviewed as often as the newspaper men will consent to be imposed upon. This Tar Heel political manipulator is a slick proposition.—Charlotte Observer.

—Mr. Roosevelt's address yesterday, when he paid Portsmouth and the Navy Yard a visit, contained no remarkable feature. It eschewed, as seemed entirely proper, any particular political issue. The references to the Civil War were in good taste, the tributes paid to the devotion of the soldiers and leaders on both sides were warm and generous, and the praise of the work of the regular army at San Francisco was just and timely. The President's references to political matters were few in number and general in import. He gave expression to a great and important truth when he said that the voters are responsible for the efficiency or inefficiency of their government; for they can get as good government as they want if they realize and respect the power of their ballots.—Norfolk Landmark, May 31.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Helpful Reminders as to the Laundering of Linen.

To prepare linen for washing soak the articles overnight in water. Never use hot water for soaking purposes, as it tends to make dirt adhere to linen, while cold or tepid water loosens it and so simplifies the process of washing. Use borax in the proportion of one tablespoonful to one gallon of water. It is perfectly harmless and has a marvelous power of softening water and of drawing out dirt. The object to be aimed at in washing is to get rid of the dirt with as little wear and tear as possible.

Do not put the clothes in the boiler if the water is at all hot. This method discolors linen and should at all times be carefully avoided. Allow the clothes to boil for ten minutes, remove from the boiler to a tub and add cold water. Do not allow the clothes to boil too long or they will become a yellow color, and they must on no account be boiled before washing.

Fireplace Mottoes.

"Welcome ye coming, speed ye parting guest."

"My home is your home."

"Peace be unto this house and all who dwell herein."

"As I sat musing ye fire burned."

"My fire is my friend."

"Let no man take beyond this threshold hence words spoken here in friendship's confidence."

"We strive to serve you, friends. In entering this house you do possess it. Peace and heart's greetings."

"As we journey through life let us live by the way."

To Get Rid of Cockroaches.

A housekeeper who was recommended to try cucumber peeling as a remedy for cockroaches strewed the floor with pieces of the peel, cut not very thin, and watched the sequel. The pests covered the peel within a short time so that it could not be seen, so voraciously were they engaged in sucking the poisonous moisture from it. The second night that this was tried the number of cockroaches was reduced to a quarter, and none was left alive on the third night.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

At Providence, R. I., on Thursday, Edward G. Hurd, of Morganton, N. C., was chosen head of the Rhode Island Institute for the Deaf.

—A hen on the place of Mr. Tom Gantt near Mooresville, Mecklenburg county, a few days ago laid an egg that measured a fraction more than ten inches in length and was about the size of one's little finger.

—Clarkton Express: The Pythians who went to Council to start a lodge last week all say that they were royally entertained. They could not have been treated better, by the Knights and those who joined, and by their wives and daughters, when the ladies and girls served refreshments until two o'clock in the morning.

—Lexington Dispatch: Mr. John A. Eller, who lives near Bethany, has an old relic of the Civil War which he prizes very much, so much so that he refused an offer of $5 for it the other day. It is a belt which he captured at the battle of Kinston, this State, and because of the circumstances attending the capture, he will not part with it.

—Lexington Dispatch: During May Lexington has secured three new industries; an ice factory, a glass factory and a veneer factory. There isn't a month in the year that this town doesn't build up some sort of industry. These new enterprises will need labor. In Lexington there are good wages, good schools, good water and most everything else that is good.

—Fayetteville special, May 31: This morning Road Superintendent Cole was on his way to the chain gang camp on the east side of Cape Fear river, with four convicts, who were sentenced at the recent term of Superior Court. When about a mile beyond Clarendon bridge, they suddenly fell upon the officer, overpowered him, took his revolver and scattered in different directions to the woods.

—At Raleigh on Thursday the Secretary of State chartered the Merchants & Farmers Bank, of Garysburg, with $7,500 capital, subscribed by A. J. Ellis and others. Charter was granted to the Washington Amusement Company of Beaufort county, for the operation of theatres and skating rinks, capital $2,000 suoscribed by B. W. Taylor and others.

—Lexington Dispatch: A rather interesting find was made by Mr. P. F. Rothrock, of Abbotts Creek, one day recently. He discovered in a hole in the ground a number of pieces of Indian pottery and several bones of deer, 'possums and turtle shells. The bones were all cracked, as if some Injun had been after the marrow. The whole was evidently the remains of a feast the Redmen held many years ago, more than a century.

—Some opposition arose in Washington to the apopintment of James Parrott as postmaster at Kinston and charges were sent to the Postoffice Department relating to the appointment, but the contest came to a rather abrupt end on Thursday, when Senator Simomns and Representative Claude Kitchin interested themselves in the matter. Senator Simmons favorably reported the nomination of Mr. Parrot to the Senate.

—Senator Overman has secured the passage of his Salisbury military road bill, carrying an appropriation of $15,000, and the measure was sent to the White House Thursday afternoon for the signature of the President. This appropriation will enable those interested to build a fine road from some central point in Salisbury to the National Cemetery. Senator Overman also secured the passage of the bill appropriating $5,000 for replacing the monument and beautifying the grounds at Moore's Creek battleground.

—Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer, May 31: The police department here received a capias from Orange county to-day for Deputy Revenue Collector N. G. Pool, it being charged that one of his possemen, while on a raid in Orange, shot and killed a moonshiner. Pool is here at Federal Court as a witness in a number of cases. The officer who has the capias asked a court official if he could arrest Pool and was told that to do so now would be contempt of court, so there will be no service until court ends.

—High Point special, May 31: The North Carolina Case Workers' Association, in session here to-day, advanced the price of furniture five per cent. This advance was made simultaneously by all the Southern furniture manufacturers, many of them being present at this meeting. The western manufacturers, in session at Chicago to-day, made the same advance, rendering it general throughout the United States. Manufacturers from all the Southern States were in attendance upon the meeting and a great time was had. The next meeting will be held in Morehead City in August of this year.

—Mount Oliver Tribune: Last week closed the strawberry season in Eastern North Carolina and in every respect the crop was a record breaker. This is particulaly true as to the number of cars which greatly exceeds all former years. In the past the crop has ranged around the two thousand mark but this year the total number is a little over twenty-six hundred cars. The maximum number of cars estimated by the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association was 2,500 cars and by C. T. Woodward, the agent of the Armour car line at Wilmington, 2,700 cars. Mr. Woodward's estimate was nearer correct for the number to be exact is 2,623 cars.

—Lumberton Robesonian: Wednesday night at Floral College, near Maxton, Geo. McEachern, colored, shot and killed Alex. Alford also colored. It is understood that Alford and McEachern and about four others negroes were together at a colored woman's house when some trouble arose between Alford and the woman. Alford threw the woman out of the house and as a result of the mix-up McEachern shot Alford. Three shots were fired, but the one that struck and proved fatal, entered near the heart, producing instant death. This hapened at about ten o'clock. McEachern made his escape and when last heard from was near John's Station in Scotland County. Officers began pursuit of him yesterday. Three others of the negro men and the negro woman were arrested.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when uninary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Wilmington people testify to permanent cures.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor, of Eight South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all pulled up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only two glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Trustees Define Relative Duties—Attempt to Wreck.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—The State Board of Agriculture as trustees of the A. & M. College, after hearing statements from members of the faculty, adopted tonight stringent rules for the government of the college so far as discipline of students is concerned, the purpose being to settle differences that arose between the faculty and students at the first of last session which brought about the expelling of several members of the senior and other classes for rebelling against an order issued, taking special privileges from the Seniors. In the new regulation just adopted those privileges are restored at the request of both faculty and students. The demarkation between the authority of the commandant and the president of the college was also more clearly stated to avoid clashes from that quarter. The Board elected W. A. Syme, of Raleigh, assistant professor of chemistry. The Board is carefully revising the college budget for the coming year. The salaries of a number of professors are increased. The running expenses of the college are something over $100,000.

This morning as a passenger train on the Raleigh and Southport Railroad was coming toward Raleigh, near McCuller's station, a big log was discovered on the track near a sharp turn in the road. It was evidently put there for the purpose of wrecking the train. Coming to a low speed, the engine was slowed down in time.

A LITTLE TALK ABOUT CRAWFORD SHOES!

We have found out, time and time again, that the Crawford Shoes talk for themselves even better than we can talk for them. Yet they are just so good that we can't help but talk about them a little now and then. Ask any of your friends, whose shoes have that exclusive custom look, where the style and comfort stick out in every part, whatshoe he wears. We know he will say nearly every time, "They are Crawfords."

We can safely assert that every point of Shoe excellence known to the world's greatest shoe producers has been embodied in it.

It seems incredible that, for the price, we are able to sell a shoe for style, comfort and wearing qualities, that will entirely eclipse the best efforts of the high priced custom makers.

Comfort in a dress shoe is often hard to obtain; that is not so if it is a Crawford.

We can fit you with a new Crawford so that it will feel like an old shoe, but it will ever look like a new one.

MADRID TRAGEDY UNNERVES PEOPLE

A member of the civil guard this afternoon recognized Hamilton, the English suspect, as a companion of Manuel Morales, the Italian suspect on the balcony on which the bomb was thrown at the royal carriage. The two men also were seen together at Barcelona.

The searches made by the police disclose the fact that the author of the outrage was a man of luxury and wealth. He left many valuables and fine clothes behind him in his hurried flight. He bought a bouquet of flowers before the attempt and concealed the mob with it. This bouquet was thrown amid the strewing of the flowers which fell upon the coach as a greeting to their majesties. The would-be assassin rented an overlooking balcony at a fabulous price. At the time he threw the bomb the author of the outrage evidently suffered some injury or burn, as one of the garments he left behind shows blood stains.

The bursting of an automobile tire to-day in the Puerta Del Sol caused a panic which threatened to be serious. The nerves of the people are so tense that the explosion of the tire was believed to be another outrage. There was a mad rush in which women were knocked down and trampled and cafes were invaded and damaged. Order was restored with difficulty.

An examination of the royal coach shows it to be badly scarred and damaged. The lamps were shattered. General Weyler was seriously wounded by the bomb explosion.

The magnitude of the attempt on the lives of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria increases.

The number of killed is now given as twenty, and the wounded at sixty. A jewelled decoration worn by King Alfonso was shattered by a splinter of the bomb. Queen Victoria is irreconcilable, declaring that she is responsible for many persons being killed.

MURDERESS WAS ACQUITTED.

Jury Out But Few Minutes on Josephine Terranova's Case.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, June 1.—Josephine Terranova this afternoon was acquitted of the murder of her aunt, Consetta Riggio. She was, however, not released, oeing remanded to the tombs to answer the charge of murder her uncle, who was killed at the same time as his wife. Assistant District Attorney Ely, who has conducted the prosecution, was unable to say definitely to-night whether or not the second charge would be prosecuted. The jury returned their verdict within sixteen minutes after the court's charge, agreeing on the innocence of the defendant without discussion.

The prisoner received the announcement with perfect composure. As she was being led out of court on her way to the Tombs she was followed by a crowd of women, many of whom, thrust the officers aside and embraced and kissed her. Outside the tombs cheers were raised by a throng of hundreds of Italians to whom the news of the acquittal was known, the prisoner waving her handkerchief as she crossed the "Bridge Of Sighs" leading to the tombs.

The verdict was received with some surprise by the prosecution from the fact that the killing being admitted, Judge Scott in his charge instructed the jury, in default of justification, which plea he said has not been advanced, there being little evidence of the alleged as an excuse, except the prisoner's own testimony, that they should properly find a verdict of murder in the first degree.

The girl has been on trial several weeks.

RATE BILL NEARLY COMPLETE.

Jim Crow Amendment Will Probably Be Eliminated—New Amendments.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 1.—Only two amendments remained to be settled when the conferences on the railroad rate bill adjourned to-day. The amendments in dispute are those relating to "Jim Crow" cars and the one prescribing that no hearings of applications for injunctions setting aside orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be had without five days notice to the Commission. It is said that the "Jim Crow" amendment is slated to go out of the bill. As passed by the Senate, it is required that the railroads shall provide equal accommodations for the different races. Northern negroes object to this because they fear it will suggest to Northern States the passage of "Jim Crow" laws.

Two important amendments were redrafted by the conferees. One of these was the pass amendment, for which a substitute was offered by the House conferees, and the substitute was accepted. It prohibits the issuance of passes to any persons. It makes no exemptions, whatever, but is not to take effect until January 1. The other amendment re-drafted as the one making pipes and partly by water shall be common carriers. The "commodity" amendment which prohibits railroads from carrying any articles it mines, manufactures, or produces, was also amended slightly so as to render it less in conflict with the pipe line amendments.

The conferees agreed that express companies should be brought within the provisions of the act to regulate interstate commerce, but the palace sleeping cars should not.

Fire which broke out at South Boston, Va., yesterday afternoon at one o'clock entailed a financial loss estimated at $250,000 to $3,00,000. The which is supposed to have orginated from a lighted cigarette or match thrown in the stables of Edmundson's warehouse. For three hours the flames raged with unchecked fury, destroying many of the business houses in the town.

President Roosevelt sent to the Senate yesterday the nomination of A. L. McCaskill to be postmaster at Fayetteville, N. C.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history.. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurange on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build ur our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

SENATOR TILLMAN'S WAY.

Hi Attitude Reminds a Colleague of a Story.

The senators who expected to see Senator Tillman rampage around on the railroad rate bill, of which he is in charge on the floor, are discouraged, says the New York World. Every day they go to the senate thinking that there will be an explosion, and every day they are disappointed.

"Tillman's skill in turning corners and the attitude of the public remind me of the knife thrower who was exhibiting his prowess in a variety theater," said a senator. "He had been accustomed to stand a very pretty young woman up against a board and throw big knives at her, which barely missed her, but did miss her, and outlined her form against the board.

"One night his assistant was ill, and the knife thrower was obliged to substitute his wife, who was an old and ugly woman. The wife stood up against the board. The knife thrower came on, did his preliminary antics, selected a great shining knife and plugged it at the woman. It struck beside her head.

"'Holy smoke!' shouted a man in the gallery. 'He's missed her!'"

Selected Her Victims.

An official in the government service at Washington tells of the rupture of the friendly relations that had so long subsisted between his daughter of nine years, named Katharine, and another little girl of the same age called Marie. It appears that immediately after the falling out the youngster last mentioned was moved to communicate to the parents of Katherine certain details of the distressing occurrence. When next the two children met there ensued some rather severe recriminations. Said Katherine:

"I think you're just a hateful, mean thing to tell my father and mother that I bit you. You ought to be ashamed of yourself!"

"Well," retorted Marie, "I think you ought to have been ashamed to bite me."

"Suppose I did bite you," vehemently answered Katherine. "You bite sometimes, don't you?"

Whereupon Marie evinced the greatest indignation. "Let me tell you one thing," she observed, "if I do bite I never bite any one outside my own family!"—New York Times.

Chief Was Disappointed.

Colonel Bill Zeveley of Muskegee, the leading lawyer of Indian Territory, has many clients among the affluent aborigines of the Creek, Cherokee and other nations. Colonel Bill is a fine, upstanding man.

A few days ago some Indians came to see the great father and were taken to the White House by Chief Porter. The Indians had a short powwow with the president and came away.

"What did you think of him?" asked Chief Porter as they were walking through the White House grounds.

There was no response for a few moments. Then one of the visiting chiefs said: "I was disappointed. I expected to see a fine looking man like Colonel Zeveley."—New York World.

A Short Session.

Representative John Sharp Williams said that Representative Payne's warning to the Republican members of the house not to be precipitate in revising the tariff reminded him of the man who broke up a poker game.

"The game had been in progress for forty-eight hours," Mr. Williams said. "One of the players announced that he was going to quit.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 1.—The cotton market continued very nervous and unsettled with the close showing a net loss of 12 to 17 points. Sale for the day were estimated at 350,000 bales.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 points on the old crop which was influenced by steadier cables than expected and covering, while the new crop was depressed by the favorable weather reports and bearish acreage estimates, one being issued by a conservative trade publication showing an increase of 9.54 per cent. and antoher showing an increase of 6.3 per cent. and placing the average condition at 82.1 per cent. Trading was quite active early, but orders were very evenly divided with shorts covering for the holidays while there was continued liquidation and some selling for short account on the bearish crop outlook.

Prices moved irregular within a range of 4 to 5 points until afternoon when another crop report was issued under which the market broke sharply. This report predicted an increase in acreage of 7.6 per cent., and placed the condition at 85.9 per cent. After its publication, July sold off to 10.50 and October to 10.25 or 12@14 points net lower. The close was barely steady in tone and at practically the low point of the session. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8 lower. Sentiment here was very unsettled after the close. The local trade was figuring on an increase in acreage ranging from 5 to 9 per cent. and a condition ranging around the 10 years average. The markets will all be closed to-morrow.

MORMON SENATOR TO BE UNSEATED

Senate Privileges and Elections Committee So Recommends to That Body

MR. OVERMAN VOTED YES

Resolution Was Adopted in Committee by Vote of 7 to 5—Resolution Offerred by Expulsion of Senator Burton.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 1.—That Reid Smoot is not entitled to his seat in the United States Senate aa a Senator from Utah was the decision of the Senate committee on Privileges and Elections, declared to-day by a vote of seven to five. The decision was on Senator DuBois' resolution offered at the meeting two weeks ago, which was carried by Senator Burrows, Dolliver, Pettus, Overman, Bailey, Dubois and Frazier voting in the affirmative, and Senators Foraker, Dillingham, Hopkins, Beveridge and Knox in the negative. The vote of Senator Depew was not cast. Votes were had on the constitutional question of expulsion and exclusion after which the members of the committee expressed themselves in favor of a vote in the Senate during the present session of Congress.

The effect of the resolution adopted will be to place squarely before the Senate the question whether Senator Smoot shall continue in his seat and leave to that body the decision as to the method of procedure. A majority, it is said, can declare that it is the sense of the Senate that Senator Smoot be excluded and under the form of the resolution proceed to unseat him by that method.

Senator Bailey to-day introduced a resolution in the committee on Privileges and Elections for the expulsion of Senator Johnson R. Burton, of Kansas. Action on the resolution went over until next Tuesday. It is said, that the sentiment of the committee is such that the resolution will be adopted if Burton does not resign before the next meeting of the committee. Friends of Senator Burton were notified that action on the expulsion resolution was withheld to-day because of a statement that it was believed a resignation would be received in a few days.

They were further notified that careful inquiry developed the impression that the expulsion resolution would be reported and passed next Tuesday without debate or division in the Senate.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS GOOD.

General Activity Continues—Money Returning from San Francisco.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

New York, Jun 1.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade to-morrow will say:

Business maintains wholesome progress and wholesale collections improve. Uncertainty regarding the crops caused unusual conservatism at the northwest until this week when the outlook became sufficiently encouraging to restore confidence. In many jobbing lines there is no prospect of vigorous activity until Fall, but wholesale distribution is now heavy and retail business is only retarded at points where temporary weather conditions are adverse. Little idle machinery is reported at manufacturing plants, except in a few cases of labor disputes and several substantial increases in wages became effective on January 1. Railway earnings thus far recorded for May exceeded last year's by 11.1 per cent. and foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed gains of $1,704,681 in imports and $491,743 in exports. Money is returning from San Francisco and more gold has been engaged abroad, but the security market rules comparatively quiet. Aside from the strike of founders and moulders, the iron and steel industry is in splendid condition. No decrease in activity of textile machinery has occurred although it is believed that some mills are overtaking orders and the tone of the primary market for cotton goods developed a little weakness, but without any radical reduction in quotations. Footwear factories are supplied with orders that maintain full activity for two or three months and supplementary contracts for Fall delivery continually arrive from salesmen or by mail. The higher prices announced last week on sole leather came as a surprise, owing to the dullness of the market, and tended to make business still smaller.

CONGRESSMAN ADAMS DIES BY HIS OWN HAND

Shot Himself at His Apartments In Washington—Dabbled In Stocks and Owed More Than He Could Pay.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 1.—Representative Robert Adams, of Philadelphia died at the emergency hospital to-day from the effects of a self-inflicted bullet wound.

Mr. Adams was discovered in a dying condition in his apartments at the Metropolitan Club chambers shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. He was sitting in a chair. A bullet wound in his mouth and pistol lying near him made it clear that he had attempted to kill himself.

A letter received by Speaker Cannon from Mr. Adams this morning explained the cause of the suicide. Mr. Adams said in the letter that his debts exceeded his resources and forced him to abandon his official position. While he did not indicate an intention to take his life, he spoke for the form of his burial, indicating that he had then made up his mind to commit the rash act.

Dr. Nevitt, the coroner, issued a certificate of death by suicide, saying that it was such a clear case no inquest would be necessary. Not in years has there come to the membership of the lower house of Congress such sudden gloom as came with the going out of Mr. Adams. But yesterday, having charge of the diplomatic and consular bill, he showed energy and activity, getting the bill through the House with less friction than usual, but few amendments being made to the measure.

When the House convened this morning there was an especially large membership present and when the chaplain referred to the death of the late Congressman, members were visibly affected.

Then came a scene that has never had its parallel in the history of the chamber of the nation's law-making body. The Speaker rose and asked that the House indulge him while he read a letter from the dead, a letter received while the life of Robert Adams was passing away. A silence fell on the House that but yesterday was surcharged with animation. The letter was as follows:

"Washington, D. C., May 31, 1906.

"Hon. J. G. Cannon,

"My Dear Mr. Speaker:

"The fact that my personal obligations exceed my resources is my only excuse for abandoning the responsible position I occupy in the House. I am willing to be buried at its expense, but I ask that no committee be appointed or memorial services held, as I have never been in sympathy with the latter custom.

"With assurances of my high regard.

"Sincerely yours,

"ROBERT ADAMS."

Folowing the reading of the letter, Mr. Morrell presented a resolution directing the sergeant-at-arms to make the necessary arrangements for the funeral and expense to be paid out of the contingent fund of the House, and then as a further mark of respect the House adjourned.

Representative Adams was one of the most popular Representatives in Congress and he has been identified with many matters of world-wide importance. Mr. Adams was a society and club man and was at all prominent social functions in this city. It was only yesterday morning, he, as acting chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, managed the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill in its final passage in the House. As this bill has been before the House for the past week, Mr. Adams has been the principal figure in the House. There was nothing in his department during the consideration of the measure to indicate an unusual condition of his mind.

It is general knowledge among Mr. Adams' friends and associates in the House that he was a dealer on the stock market and has been for many years. He had, however, met reverses in this connection in the past and had at times also been a very successful operator.

Mr. Adams has always been a consistent Republican of the stalwart type. He was born in Philadelphia, February 26, 1849, and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania.

In 1883 he began his political career as a member of the State Senate of Pennsylvania and in 1899 entered the diplomatic service as American minister to Brazil. He filled this post for a little over a year and then came back to re-enter politics, being elected a member of the 53rd Congress, in which body he has served continuously ever since.

WADESBORO LYNCHERS BOUND OVER TO COURT

Judge Neal Ordered Sixteen Men Committed to Union County Jail—Two Others Turned States' Evidence—Young Lady Witness.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Charlotte, N. C., June 1.—As the result of the preliminary hearing before Superior Court, Judge Walter H. Neal, at Wadesboro, sixteen men men charged with participating in the lynching of John V. Johnson, a white man charged with killing of his brother-in-law Monday morning, were at 6 o'clock this afternoon held in bonds of $5,000 each for trial at the next term of Superior Court of Union county, a neighboring county to that in which the lynching occurred.

The order signed by Judge Neal recites that after hearing the evidence there is probable grounds "to believe John Niven, Lester Johnson, Zeke Lewis, Elmer M. Dunn, John Jones, J. F. Dunn, May Gulledge, Lewis Adams, Jim Swink, Billy Dean and Frank Graham, guilty of the offense charged against them under the statute of 1893 and they are admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000, to be approved by the solicitor, for their appearance at the next term of Superior Court of Union county, for the trial of criminal cases, to answer to the charges set out in the warrants. In default of the execution of said bonds the Sheriff will commit them to the common jail of Union county."

"The probably grounds" were established upon the evidence of Miss Alice Boggan, daughter of the Sheriff, who was in the jail when the mob entered, Sheriff Boggan, H. D. Kendall, H. D. Kendall, Jr., Walter Meeks and J. L. Pratt. The two Kendalls turned State's evidence.

The attorneys for the defendants did not cross-examine the witnesses and rested upon the State's case and there was no argument. When Judge Neal intimated that he would admit the 16 prisoners to bail, John Bennett, retained by the Governor to assist the solicitor in the prosecution, objected The solicitor also objected, but the judge adhered to his decision, holding that the cases were bailable.

The proceedings are under the law of 1893, known as the "Act to protect prisoners from being lynched, etc.," and provides that the judge may send the case to another county. Judge Neal stated that this was the strong point of the law, for if he held the men for murder he could not remove the case, but would have to bind them over to the next term of Anson county, the county in which the lynching occurred.

The judge stated that there had been suggestions that witnesses had reason of fear personal violence, but he hoped the people would uphold the court, as the matter would be probed to the bottom.

H. D. Kendall, Sr., one of the mob who turned State's evidence, gave a dramatic recital in court of the lynching declaring that Zeke Lewis and Otis Martin were the ring-leaders of the mob who took Johnson from the jail. Counsel for the defendants made Kendall step from the stand and point out the men who were with the mob.

It required only an hour for the friends of the accused men to raise the amount stipulated for bail, the aggregate being $80,000. Under the statutes of 1903, the maximum penalty for lynching in this State is fifteen years.

Great Interest in Hearing.

Wadesboro, N. C., June 1.—An immense crowd is here to-day to await developments in the lynching inquiry before Judge Neal in the court house. Many of these are from the Morven section where the arrests of the alleged lynching took place yesterday, but all is quiet. Two of the men arrested yesterday, Messrs. Meeks and Kendall, turned State's evidence, and it was largely through them that it was possible to issue the warrants. Meeks and Kendall were liberated upon their statements giving evidence as to the others. The remaining thirteen are still in jail here.

It is certain now that the party who seized the Sheriff is Zeke Lewis. His identity was sworn to by at least two witnesses.

H. D. Kendall, one of the parties who gave the mob away swears that the lynching party was organized Sunday and that a crowd from Rockingham, Wadesboro and Gulledge township, were to meet the party in Wadesboro.

It is said the parties who helped lynch Johnson will give evidence against them. The inquiry is now proceeding and the court room is full of people, who are taking great interest

Investigation of Railroads is Resumed Before Inter-State Commerce Commission

INQUIRY AT WASHINGTON

Three Railroads Combined to Charge $3.20 Ton on Coal Shipments to National Capital—Gave One Dealer $1.10 Rate.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 1.—The inquiry of the Interstate Commerce Commission into the relations of railroads with coal and oil companies, under the Tillman Gillespie resolution, was resumed here to-day. J. E. Mulford, of Baltimore, general superintendent of motive power of the Baltimore and Ohio, was subjected to a searching inquiry by William A. Glasgow, Jr., special counsel of the government, with regard to an alleged triple agreement between the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore and Ohio, and the H. C. Frick Coal and Coke Company regrading the payment of bills for car repairs in which he sought to show that the Frick Company was favored in the matter of charges. Witness declared he knew of no contract, but admitted that he had heard of some such agreement. The witness admitted also that so far as the Baltimore and Ohio was concerned the Frick Company was not on the same basis as "some other people." The witness was excused after agreeing to produce at the hearing in Philadelphia on Wednesday next, any records in his office which would help establish what the arrangement is between the Baltimore and Ohio and the Frick Company.

J. A. Collins, of this city, who at one time was engaged in business in West Virginia, told of his endeavors to get large shipments of coal from a West Virginia mine into Washington, which however, he was prevented from doing because of an alleged general understanding among the various railroads not to deliver coal in this city for less than $3.20 per ton. He said he believed the rate was discriminatory because he had understood that a rate of $1.10 had been made to favored parties. The $3.20 rate, he said, compelled him to abandon his scheme to supply coal to a dealer in this city. The witness stated that the dealer in question had been receiving his coal from the Allegheny Coal Company, which he said was the Washington end of the Keystone Coal and Coke Company.

William M. Collins, a son of the previous witness, corroberated the testimony of his father.

The hearing was then adjourned until next Tuesday at Philadelphia.

LIABILITY OF THE RAILROADS

Senator Morgan Spoke at Length in Senate on Revolution in Isle of Pines—Criticises Roosevelt.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 1.—The Senate to day pasesd the bil regulating the liability of railroad companies for injury to employees but Senator Daniel gave notice of a motion to re-consider, which, if it prevails, will have the effect of again bringing the question before the Senate for consideration.

The remaining time of the open session was devoted to a speech by Senator Morgan insupport of the assertion of American control in the Isle of Pines and to a discussion of the resolution prescribing a policy for the government in the purchase of supplies for the Panama canal. Senator Stone oposed the amendment as useless and attacked the President as weak and wavering in policy.

Senator Morgan spoke at length on his resolution providing for the investigation of conditions in the Isle of Pines by a special Senate committee, taking the position that the island is United States territory and urging that if he question is not properly settled the result will be very serious. He charged the present administration with being antagonistic to retaining the island and said that intaking this position the government had arrayed itself against the interest of a number of its own citizens.

ITALIAN LABORERS COMPLAIN.

Alleged 1,500 in Western North Carolina are Harshly Treated.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 1.—Representatives of the Italian government are investigating complaints made to the consuls in the United State in regard to alleged harsh treatment of fifteen hundred Italian laborers brought from Italy to work for the Carolina Construction Company in the building of the railroad from Spruce Pines via Marion, in the western part of the State. It is alleged that the Italian laborers, many of whom it is said, have become dissatisfied, are not permitted to leave, but are forced to work under heavy guard. The Italian government representatives have taken the matter up and proposes to remove the restraint if such exists over the laborers in the employ of the Carolina Construction Company.

MADRID TRAGEDY UNNERVES PEOPLE

KING AND QUEEN'S DARING

Unattended by Guards, Royal Bride and Groom Took Automobile Ride Yesterday—Women on Streets Uttered Cries of Fear

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Madrid, June 1.—The nervous tension of the populace of Madrid has been wrought up to the highest perch by the terrible events of King Alfonso's wedding day. The period of the wedding fetes, while still officially proceeding, is filled with sinister forebodings. The King and Queen sought to re-assure the public by appearing to-day in an open automobile unattended by military guard.

The King and Queen had the outward appearance of serenity. They were wildly acclaimed as they passed through the Puerta Del-Sol, but this was mingled with cries of fear from women who felt that this was another invitation to some miscreant to scatter death and destruction. To-night the heavens are red with illuminations from the Semovia bridge to the Atocha walk, and from the palace the royal family and their guests watch the lurid play of rockets and Roman candles; but, all the brightness fails to lift the gloom that has fallen on the community, and seems but a reminder of the terrible events of the wedding day. Lines of cavalry guard the entrance to the royal palace. Lights sparkle in many of the windows of the palace, but the vastness of the structure gives a sombreness corresponding with the prevailing feeling of awe.

King Alfonso wishes to postpone the royal ball set for to-morrow night, but the ministers are seeking to persuade him that the programme should be carried out. The ministry probably will prevail and every effort will be made to efface by the splendid spectacle of to-morrow's royal bull fight and the wedding, the memory of the tragedy following so close upon the nuptials.

PACKING HOUSES TO BE EXPOSED

President Roosevelt Will Make Public Report of Shocking Conditions in Chicago

GOES TO CONGRESS MONDAY

Opposition of Packers to Government Inspection Impelled President to Let Shocking Results of Investigation Go to People.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, June 1. — President Roosevelt decided to-day to make public the report of Professor Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and Jas. B. Reynolds, of New York, concerning the conditions of the meat packing establishments as they found them on an inquiry instituted by the President, primarily for his own information. The report will be sent to the Congress next Monday. It will be accompanied by a special message of President Roosevelt in which he will take strong ground in favor of immediate and drastic legislation to correct the evils which are exposed in the report.

The President had not expected to make public the report of Commissioner Neill and Mr. Reynolds. He felt that its publication might injure the packing house industry in this country. Primarily the information contained in the report was obtained to be used as a basis for the legislation proposed in the amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill by Senator Beveridge. He did not imagine there would be serious opposition to a proposition to afford such inspection of such meats prepared for domestic consumption as it afforded to meat products intended for shipment abroad. The meat packers, however, rose in arms against the Beveridge amendment, being insistent in opposition to it not only in principle, but on the question of paying for the proposed inspection.

The President decided, therefore, to make public the Neill-Reynolds report which has been presented to him in writing. The attitude of the House Committee on Agriculture, which is showing a disposition to delay the porgress of legislation, also influenced the president in arriving at his decision to make public the information in his hands. He desires that the public shall understand thoroughly why he is insisting upon the enactment of the Beveridge amendment providing for strict government inspection of all packing houses, and meat products.

WRANGLE OVER IN TENNESSEE

After Four Stormy Days Democratic State Convention Nominates Congressman Patterson.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Nasheville, Tenn., June 1.—Malcolm R. Patterson, of Memphis, representative in Congress from the Tenth District, was nominated for governor tonight by the State Democratic committee, on other name being presented for consideration. The nomination came after four days of the stormiest State political gathering in the history of Tennessee, and after a campaign made notable by the bitterness and personal nature of the contest between Mr. Patterson and Governor John I. Cox, incumbent. Judge John R. Bond was also an aspirant, but had at no time been prominently considered.

The cerdentials committee completed its task only this morning, when majority and minority reports on several of the contested counties were submitted. Stubbornly the fight was continued on the floor, but gradually it became evident that Patterson's strength was growing and at 4:45 P. M., when adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock, it was apparent to all that Cox was defeated. When the convention re-assembled at 8 o'clock Horace E. Palmer, of Rutherford county, was installed as permanent chairman and when nominations were called for only Patterson's name was presented. He was nominated on a viva vice vote, much enthusiasm prevailing.
